REGISTERING TO VOTE WITH AN ON-CAMPUS ADDRESS?

INCLUDE YOUR DORM OR RESIDENCE HALL NAME

Your residential address determines your voting precinct. If you decide to register to vote (or update your Virginia voter registration) using your campus address as your residence, be sure to include your dormitory or residence hall name along with your dorm street address — this may be different than your campus mailing address. This is needed to assign you to the correct polling location.

One Registration. One Vote.

The address on your voter registration determines where you vote. You can only be registered to vote at one physical residential address at a time. If you decide to register using your campus address and were previously registered at a different address in Virginia or another state, you can no longer vote in the previous location. Your residence address cannot be a P.O. Box or campus mailbox.
